

APA

College Writing II

Know your purpose

- Objectively inform readers
- Make data-based recommendations

How?

- Choose a topic you care about
- Ask a neutral, measurable question
- Answer the question with findings from published research studies

Simply define
Ask a simple
Yes/No question
Take a position

3rd-person pronouns
Formal tone, factual
objective

Writing Style & Language

Remember
Purpose (inform)
Audience (educated, non-specialists)

Present tense for references to literature, experiments done,
results & recommendations
May use specialized vocabulary

Bower, Virginia, Charlene Kiser, Kim McMurtry, Ellen Millsaps, and Katherine Vande Brake. A Comparison of Disciplinary Writing Features. Writing Tutor.edu, 2002. Web. June 17 2015. <<http://writingtutor.montreat.edu//11-2.htm>>

Sections of a scholarly article

Peer
Review

Abstract
Literature Review/Introduction
Method
Results
Discussion
References

Benner Library
Olivet Nazarene University library.olivet.edu > Subject Guides > College Writing II

Reference Desk 815-939-5355

ONULibrary@olivet.edu

