

Occupational Outlook Handbook (OOH)

http://www.bls.gov/oco/

The OOH is a publication of the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. It is updated every 2-years.

Ways to use the Occupational Outlook Handbook site:

- 1. To find out about a specific occupation or topic, enter your search term in the search box (found in the upper right corner of every page—change the drop down box to list Occupational Outlook Handbook).
- 2. To find out about many occupations, browse through listings using the Occupations links in the left column of every page.
- 3. For a listing of all occupations in alphabetical order, go to the A-Z Index (listed just above the green bar near the top of every page) then select a letter.

Each entry contains the following sections

- Nature of the Work
- Working Conditions
- Training, Other Qualifications, and Advancement
- Employment
- Job Outlook
- Earnings
- Related Occupations
- Sources of Additional Information
